

#TogetherFCPS

FCPS Civility Awareness Week - 12/4-12/8

Civility in the Schools presentations

Featuring Daniel Buccino of the Johns Hopkins Civility Initiative

Tuesday, December 5 • The Arc at Market Street • 555 S. Market St.

- 4-5:30 PM for school counselors and administrators

- 6-7:30 PM for students, community, and FCPS staff

Monday - Respecting Others

- Look up the definition of respect.
- Make a list of people you think are respectful and talk about why they would be a good friend.
- List three ways you can show your classmates respect.
- Create a recipe for respect. What ingredients do you need?
- Use your manners: please, thank you, I'm sorry, don't interrupt, etc.
- Make a list of ways to show respect for the environment, your school, other people's belongings.

Tuesday - Cultural Awareness

- Learn to say hello in another language.
- Talk to your classmates. Make a chart and ask them about things like: favorite color, number of family members, favorite holiday, what TV shows they watch, if they like soccer, etc.
Are you more alike or different?

Wednesday - Digital Citizenship

- Search for the definition of Digital Citizenship.
- Check out a book from the Capstone Library. Here are a few suggestions:
 - Cyberbullying, by Heather Schwarz (grades 3-6)
 - Staying Safe Online, by Shannon McClintock Miller (grades K-2)
- Join the Webonauts Internet Academy to brush up on your digital citizenship skills:
<http://pbskids.org/webonauts/>
- Choices have consequences. Will you find common ground or digital drama?
<http://www.nsteens.org/Videos/SplitDecisions>
- Are you a Website Warrior? Find out here: <http://www.nsteens.org/Games/WebsiteWarrior>

Thursday - What Civility Means to You

- Create a haiku.
- Make a civility song, rap, or chant.
- Draw a picture or make a collage.

Friday - Random Acts of Kindness

- Ideas: <https://www.coffeecupsandcrayons.com/100-acts-kindness-kids/>

Share your pictures and videos on Facebook and Twitter using #TogetherFCPS

