

The Watermark* is accepting submissions for our December contest!

The Watermark is accepting submissions for our December contest, "A Long Winter's Night." Your prompt is to create something--whether it be a short story, poem, art piece (visual or digital), or photograph--inspired by the concept of a "long winter's night." Please keep content appropriate for an audience of all ages. First and second place winners will each receive an Amazon gift card! Details below.

Who can enter? FCPS middle and high school students

How many entries can I submit? One submission per category

Winners will be announced by Friday, January 11.
Certificates and prizes will be distributed.

Deadline: Wednesday, January 2

Submissions and details at

<https://lancerwatermark.weebly.com/contests.html>

We can't wait to see your submissions!

Graphic created by Cara Bond