Frederick, MD 21705

Applications MUST be received no later than Monday May 10th, 2024 to be considered

The Civitan organization is dedicated to improving the quality of life through community service. On the local level, our club is involved in a variety of fund-raising and service projects in Frederick County. We support The Challenger League of Frederick, Inc., The BirthPlace at Frederick Memorial Hospital, Community Living, Inc., The Way Station, Alzheimer's Association, Hospice, Special Olympics, Salvation Army, The American Heart Association, ARC of Frederick County, Rock Creek School, along with other non-profit organizations.

On an international level, Civitan focuses on helping people with disabilities. Civitan Clubs from around the world fund the Civitan International Research Center at the University of Alabama in Birmingham, which is a research and treatment facility for citizens who have intellectual or developmental disabilities.
